

DUMAS IS HELD
TO GRAND JURYMayor of Cass Lake, Minn., Out

Complaint Charges Attempted Arson and Robbery in Connection With an Alleged Plot to Burn the Postoffice Building at Puposky—Wounded Robber Caught in the Act Proves the State's Star Witness.Bemidji, Minn., June 30.—Following a preliminary examination here Dr. D.
F. Dumas, mayor of Cass Lake, held on charges of attempted arson and robbery in connection with an alleged plot to burn the postoffice building at Puposky, eighteen miles north of here, on June 17, was bound over by Court Commissioner H. A. Simons to await the action of the grand jury.His bail bond was fixed at $10,000, which was furnished by Fred Dumas, of Minneapolis, father of the defendant.The grand jury does not meet until the second Tuesday in September.
The state's star witness was Martin Behan, caught at Puposky while in the act of robbing the store, as the result of a trap laid by Pinkerton detectives.
Behan was wounded at the time and his condition is still serious. He had to be assisted to the witness stand.
He made the flat statement that Dr.
Dumas and R. E. Smyth, owner of the Puposky building, had planned with him and Mike Davis to rob and burn the store, for which Behan and Davis were to receive $300.Assistant Attorney General Alexander James, who conducted the case for the state, said he never had seen a witness tell a more convincing story than did Behan.On the other hand Judge Spooner, chief counsel for the defendant, put Behan through a grilling cross-examination and caused him to make weak assertions and answer so hesitatingly some of his testimony that the defendant's attorney improved the opportunity to insinuate the possibility that Behan has been coached in his confession.

Defense Seems Optimistic.

It was asserted by the defense that Behan's memory was poor on vital points and that his testimony on the whole was irresponsible; that he said he knew nothing whatever of the import of the meeting in the Larson saloon, where the Puposky affair is presented to have been hatched; that he was positive that there was a window in the wine room where the conference was held, where there really is none; that it was shown by other witnesses that his story as told in court was incompatible with established facts."We offered no witnesses for the defense," said Judge Spooner, "but we are satisfied with the proceedings.""We were impressed with the weakness of the state's case and feel that the men behind the prosecution are trembling in their boots. They did not dare to present the men who are supposed to know the most about the affair. Dr. Dumas asks only for a square deal and at the right time he will explain to the satisfaction of all his entire connection with this unfortunate episode."Dr. Dumas returned to Cass Lake and he appears to share his attorney's optimism over the result of the hearing. He says he expected that he would be bound over and that he had nearly decided to waive examination.Only five witnesses were examined.
Behan was the first and he was followed by John Larson, owner of the saloon where it is alleged the robbery plans were made. C. E. Battles, a Bemidji hardware man, told of selling Dr. Dumas a revolver. Carl Swedberg, clerk in the Puposky store, identified Behan as one of the men who came to the store on the afternoon of the robbery and William Munhall closed the testimony by telling of a conversation over the telephone with Dr.
Dumas in which Dumas asked as to the whereabouts of Behan.

tentiary—William R. Russell, District of Columbia, to Dominican republic; Evan E. Young, South Dakota, to

JUDGE OVERCOME BY HEAT

Colorado Chief Justice Taken Unconscious to Hospital.Denver, June 30.—Judge John Campbell, chief justice of the supreme court of Colorado, was overcome by heat while attending a conference of judges in chambers and was removed to St.
Luke's hospital in an unconscious condition. At the hospital it was stated that the jurist's condition is serious.ARBITRATION TREATY ALMOST PERFECTEDAnglo-American Pact in Last Stages of Negotiation.Washington, June 30.—All formal-ties necessary to the final conclusion of the general arbitration treaty between America and Great Britain could be completed within four hours, assuming that the machinery was working properly and smoothly, was the official declaration. The differences between the two countries now relate merely to phraseology and can readily be adjusted. The British ambassador has full powers to sign the treaty and the administration so far has failed to find any signs of objection to the compact on the part of the senate.It is distinctly stated that notwithstanding an impression to the contrary the treaty conserves to the utmost the constitutional powers of the senate in treaty making and that every question to be submitted to arbitration must first receive the approval of the senate. But it is pointed out that the very negotiation of the treaty will almost certainly have the effect of lessening the number of issues to be arbitrated. This is explained by the fact that through the creation of a commission of inquiry, composed of disinterested members of the Hague tribunal, most of the issues that may arise between the two governments can be settled satisfactorily by the adoption of the findings of that commission and without the necessity of proceeding to arbitration.

posed in a resolution introduced by Representative Lohack of Nebraska.

He was forty-seven years old.Society Man Convicted.

by Ambassador Reid.

REID ENTERTAINS CONNAUGHT

Dinner for the Next Governor General of Canada.London, June 30.—The American ambassador and Mrs. Reid gave a dinner at Dorchester House in the nature of a farewell to the Duke of Connaught, who, after the king's visit to Ireland, Scotland and Wales, will leave for Canada to assume the governor generalship. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, was among those present.The house was beautifully decorated with palms and the tables decked with orchids. There were 120 diners —much the largest affair given by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid since they came to England.RIOTING OCCURS IN SEAMEN'S STRIKEMore Than Twenty Persons Injured at Hull, Eng.Hull, Eng., June 30.—Serious riots occurred here. More than twenty persons were injured, including several policemen, of whom three were seriously hurt.The riots resulted from the failure to reach a settlement between the ship owners and the strikers. It became necessary to call out reinforcements of police and eventually the disturbances were quelled by a series of charges, which drove the men from the streets.The shipping federation office windows were smashed and the free labor premises wrecked by the angry strikers.
Much damage was done to the Wilson line office while the steamer Catalina had to be removed to the middle of the dock to prevent the rioters from swarming aboard under the belief the crew was discharging the cargo.

DOG GUARDS MASTER'S BODY

Canine Has to Be Killed Before Corpse Can Be Touched.Duluth, June 30.—The traditional faith of the dog for its master was never better exemplified than at a lumber camp at Brevort, Minn., when a dog guarded the dead body of its master so zealously that nobody dared to approach the body until the animal had been shot.Maurice Trentell and his dog had occupied the camp and the man lay dead on the floor when a chance passer looked in. The dog was on guard and the man went away for assistance. With others he returned and no amount of strategy or coaxing could get the animal to leave the side of its dead master.

HILL DESIGNS NEW RAIL TIE

Results in Saving in Timber of 40 Per Cent.Everett, Wash., June 30.—A large saw mill is being fitted out here in which will be made the new three-cornered railroad tie, recently designed and patented by James J. Hill.The new tie is eight inches wide and each of the two sides ten inches. Its chief advantage over the old square tie is a saving in timber of 40 per cent, a broader base and simplicity in tamping, or setting. The saving in timber will make it possible to manufacture 500 ties out of timber required to make 300 of the old ones.

Other Crosby NewsCrosby, Minn., June 29.—Matt Rutsla, a Finn aged 32, was fined $25 including costs in Judge Richard Johnson's court at Crosby for threatening to kill 17-year old Annie Lilkak if she would not marry him. Annie did not wish to wed or to die and she thought the safest thing was to get a policeman and Officer Barber arrested the ardent suitor and kept him in the lock-up at Deerwood until he was tried by Judge Johnson. The fine was paid and the defendant promised to quit frenzied love making.The Foundation Company, of New York, has completed its work on the Cuyuna range for the time being and most of its equipment has been stored at Ironton and the balance shipped to son, the popular official in charge of the company's operations on the range, has gone to Iron River, Mich., to put down a shaft. It is said the company will return to this range within six months. Malcolm Hatcher, a bookkeeper of the company, has returned to Chicago.The Inland Steel Co. is now working double shifts at its Thompson mine. A head frame is being placed in position. The cement shaft extends down about 80 feet and timbering will be extended from that point.

Drifts will be placed at the 150 level.
The shaft at the Meacham mine will be extended to a depth of 360 feet and drifting will be done at the 150 foot level. At the 300 foot level a

SENDS MESSAGE TO SENATE

President Urges Action on Central American Treaties.Washington, June 30.—Expeditionary action on the pending treaties with Honduras and Nicaragua providing for customs guarantees for foreign loans by those governments was urged by President Taft in a message to the senate.The message was read and the subject discussed at a brief executive session of the senate, but no action was taken. The Nicaragua treaty is still in the foreign relations committee, which, however, has already reported the Honduras treaty.The treaties contemplated the moral influence of this government in the assumption of foreign indebtedness by Honduras and Nicaragua, through a form of supervision and guarantee of their customs revenues.

MYSTERY IN HERMIT'S DEATH

Gold Left on Table Supporting Crushed Head of Miser.Sheboygan, Wis., June 30.—Mystery surrounds the death of John L. Sexton, "the hermit of Elkhardt lake," and the first school teacher in Sheboygan county, who was found murdered.Scattered about the table were many gold coins, probably part of the hermit's hidden hoard, for he was reputed to be wealthy.The old man was lying in a chair, his head on a table near by. His skull was crushed almost to a pulp, his throat cut from ear to ear and there was a deep gash in his right hand. He was eighty-seven years old and for nearly forty years he lived in his log cabin.

by Local Applications. It may not reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by cattarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Rev. Sheridan Belated

That "Time and tide wait for no man" was brought with much force to the intelligence of the Rev.
G. P. Sheridan of the Congregational church of this city yesterday. During the past few weeks, at the kind invitation of one of the parishoners of his church, Rev. Sheridan has been enjoying the hospitality of their summer homes at Hubert. Yesterday it was his intention of taking the noon train at Hubert, returning to Brainerd in time for the weekly prayer service. Yesterday morning, however, Carl Wright who is spending his vacation canoeing, swimming, sailing and exploring the many islands and waterways of the vicinity, kindly invited the parson to take a short sail with him to Gull Lake, the reverend gentleman consenting with the understanding that he must take the train at noon for Brainerd. The rest is soon told. Carl Wright, the captain of the sloop inadvertently left the chart of Gull lake at home, and for a couple of hours they were quietly stranded on a sand bank in that delightful lake. An automobile and several other helps came to the rescue and Rev. Sheridan was brought to the city in record breaking time.

Mentz, of this city. A very large group of friends and immediate relatives were on hand to witness the ceremony. Those assisting in the honors of the occasion were Miss Sent Larson, Miss Kate Mentz, A. T. Sun-berg and H. G. Wilson.The marriage lines were read by the Rev. C. W. Boquist, of the Swedish Mission church. After the wedding a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. They will make their future home here.

New York Grand Jury Indicts Wire Trust Officials.

RETURNS NINE TRUE BILLS

Restraint of Trade in Violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law is Charged Against Many Companies and Long List of Individuals—H. L. Satterlee, William P. Palmer and Frank Jay Gould Among Those Implicated.New York, June 30.—Nine indictments charging restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law were returned by a federal grand jury here against as many associations and a long list of individuals comprising the "wire trust," affiliated with the steel industry.Prominent among the defendants are Herbert L. Satterlee, a son-in-law of J. Pierpont Morgan; William P.
Palmer, president of the American Steel and Wire company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, and Frank Jay Gould of New York, president of the Old Dominion Iron and Nail Works company."What this suit charges," said District Attorney Wise, "is a trade agreement in restraint of trade. The government does not seek to establish a physical or fiscal merger of the properties or interests indicted, but a series of pools to maintain prices and apportion territory, in elimination of competition and so in violation of the Sherman act."There is no indication that evidence gathered by the bureau of corporations in its investigation of the steel corporation played any part in the indictments. Only two of the subsidiary companies of the United States Steel corporation are mentioned—namely, the American Steel and Wire company, however, is mentioned in the indictments against seven of the associations. In the indictments against the Telephone cable association and the Fine Magnet Wire association it is not mentioned.

General Charges the Same.

The general charges in all the indictments are the same, allowing for the difference of the business in which the defendants were engaged.It is set forth that the various associations organized under their association names and each elected a supervisor and adopted rules and regulations. An arbitrary rating was determined. It is charged, by the ratio of output for an agreed time; each member was obligated to pay $5

Upper Mississippi Launch Club Making Every Effort for a Successful Celebration

The friends and members of the Upper Mississippi Launch Club are sparing no means to make their coming Fourth of July celebration one of the best in the history of that organization. They are arranging to carry out one of the best water carnivals ever held in these parts.

The launch races are to commence at 12 o'clock sharp, and as there is quite a difference of opinion as to whether the launch on the Mississippi, this will be a race of much interest.

A new boat dock has been erected so that those who wish can get a free ride from it to Lum park across Rice lake. A very interesting program of sports, river trips, refreshment booths, etc., has been arranged that the picnic may give comfort and enjoyment to all who wish to spend the Fourth in a patriotic manner.

The Park Board of the city has had men at work clearing the park of undergrowth, placing new seats there, and arrangements have been made to have plenty of spring water on hand. Dancing is also on the program, and a general good time is promised those who wish a day in the open air.

THREE NURSES ARE GRADUATED

Last Night From the Training School of the Northwestern Hospital

PLEASING EXERCISES ARE HELD

In the Citizens State Bank Hall Before a Very Large Audience

The graduating exercises of the nurses training school of the Northwestern hospital, were held last evening at the Citizens State bank hall before an audience that occupied every seat in the spacious hall. The hall itself was never better decorated with ferns, foliage, clusters of American Beauty roses, red and white carnations, potted shrubbery, class colors, than for the occasion last evening, the Red Cross flag together with Old Glory completely arching the graduating nurses and six others in training who occupied the prettily arranged platform for the occasion. The graduating platform itself had the appearance of a conservatory of music, and formed a most pleasing appearance.

At 8:15, to the soft strains of a nocturne rendered by Miss Mabel Carlson, the nurses, those of the musical program, the speakers of the evening, together with the staff of the Northwestern hospital, slowly walked down the main aisle to their seats, the large audience having already been seated, conducted by a group of young lady ushers.

A splendid musical program interspersed the exercises, and among those taking were Miss Louise Beare, Mr. Gussie Small, Mrs. S. Brent Christopher, Mr. Gothfried S. Swanson, Miss Mabel Carlson, Miss Jennie L. Mysen, being unfortunately kept away through illness. The program received fine applause.

The Rev. Charles Fox Davis, chairman of the occasion, in a few remarks congratulated the staff of the hospital for the excellent record it had made during its history, paying a fine tribute to the great strides the science of medicine and that of surgery had made during the last 25 years and medical scientists generally, and the dignified profession of nursing.

The address of the evening was cogently delivered by the Rev. Frank Peterson, D. D., of Minneapolis, and was most able. It was a masterly putting of the value to the world of medical scientists and their allies, the nurses. He said in part: "Had I the wealth of Carnegie, I doubt very much as to whether I would distribute my wealth as he has done. My observations of human existence and humanity generally is that it is more in need of help than fiction. Had Carnegie's wealth been more largely distributed toward building up the health of suffering thousands, I am sure that he would have been recognized by the world as a wise philanthropist." The speaker compared the knowledge of medicine and surgery between Christendom and other nations of the earth; of the great value to the world of hospitals, and concluding with a most eloquent plea that the graduating nurses give their best ability to their great life work.

Dr. Joseph Nicholson, then made a brief address in which he spoke highly of the fine work that the nurses had done during their course in the training school, and gave them his parting counsels, the address being largely applauded. They were then presented with their diplomas. The following were the members of the graduating class: Miss Hildur Terse Palm, Miss Marie Christine Berg-green, Miss Alice Ovida Peterson.

A large number of nurses from the Northern Pacific sanatorium witnessed the graduating exercises, and eight clergymen of the city were on hand also.

After the exercises at the hall, about forty proceeded to the Northwestern hospital and participated in a reception which was given, a banquet following. The young ladies of the graduating class were the recipients of a large number of choice presents.

Drops Dead

Coroner Dean received a communication from Dr. Sewall of Cuyuna, at 10:30 last evening, notifying him that an engineer of the Soo on board his engine last evening had fallen dead. The name of the deceased could not be learned. Dr. Sewall informed Coroner Dean that it was not necessary for him to visit Cuyuna to make investigation, so he did not go to hold an inquest over the body.

NEW LODGE ROOM IS DEDICATED

Red Men and Their Families Enjoy a Very Pleasant Evening Last Night

GRAND OFFICERS ARE HERE

And Assist to Make the Event Both Pleasant and Profitable

A most enjoyable time was spent by the Red Men in their new hall in the Iron Exchange building last evening. About 200 members were on hand to witness the initiation of new members and the dedication of their new lodge room.

The visitors of the occasion was Grand Sachem Thomas J. McKeon, of Duluth, who gave a most inspiring address of the work done by the order and its growth. After the initiatory work, an open meeting took place to which all the families and friends of the Red Men had been invited, the audience crowding the lodge room to capacity.

Grand Sachem Thomas J. McKeon, eloquently expounded the principles of the Noble Order of Red Men at the open meeting, which was followed by a terse, epigrammatic speech by Senator C. D. Johnson.

The music of the evening was furnished by Whitford's orchestra, refreshments were served, dancing and cards following.

John Gilpin Style

That the fish and game law breakers of Crow Wing and surrounding counties will have to keep a keener lookout than heretofore, is to be noticed that Deputy Game Warden W. H. Onstine, has recently purchased a fine saddle horse with which to go the rounds of the lakes, rivers and trails to find those who may be indifferent to the majesty of the law. Mr. Onstine has been out on several trips of late, but found some of the law breakers fleet of foot, and has overcome the difficulty by the purchase of the new saddle horse. Since the new deputy game warden have been at work, fewer complaints have reached St. Paul, it is said, through their work in rounding up a long list of law breakers.

NO. 9 DITCHED

Main Line Train Meets Accident at Elk River This Morning and is Delayed

The Minneapolis train which is scheduled to arrive here at 1:25, is reported at this time of going to press as being six hours behind time. From the meagre reports obtainable pertaining to the cause of delay, is that No. 9, one of the fast trains of the main line that goes through Little Falls and on through Staples was ditched with a number of passenger cars at Elk River. Nothing can be found out at this writing as to the true nature of the wreck, although the railway officials assert that there has been no loss of life.

At the N. P. depot the waiting rooms were crowded with those who had expected to go north at the usual time.
